

Suprainfinit Gallery (Bucharest, Romania) has the pleasure to present works by Adrian Dan, Indrikis Gelzis and Eugen Rosca at Sunday Art Fair, 2017.

Adrian Dan (1985) completed a M.A. with honors at the École nationale supérieure des beaux-arts in Paris, France. Previously he studied at the University of applied arts in Vienna, Austria and the National university of the arts, Bucharest, Romania. Recent exhibitions include Syntax (Lisbon), Suprainfinit Gallery, Nicodim Gallery and the Bucharest Biennale. In 2015 he was appointed as researcher in residence in Marfa, Texas as part of the Fieldworkd:Marfa program.

Indriķis Ģelzis (1988) received his Masters degree from the Visual Communications department at the Art Academy of Latvia (2014) and graduated from the HISK (Hoger Instituut voor Schone Kunsten) Higher Institute for Fine Arts, in Ghent, Belgium (2016). Recent solo-exhibitions: Between the sheets at CINNNAMON, Rotterdam, The Netherlands; Sky's The Limit at Hole Of The Fox, Antwerp, Belgium; Tastes Like Headaches - Indrikis Gelzis and Adam Cruces with Louisa Gagliardi at kim? contemporary arts centre, Riga, Latvia. Recent group shows: Monson at Suprainfinit gallery, curated by Domenico De Chirico in Bucharest, Romania; Wholesome Environment at Lundgren gallery in Palma, Spain; Form Cannibalism at The Stable in Waregem, Belgium and others.

Eugen Rosca (1988) completed an M.A at National University of Arts, Cluj – Napoca, Romania. Recent exhibitions: 2017 Solo Show, Shallow and Profound, curated by Domenico de Chirico at Suprainfinit Gallery Bucharest, 2016 Exercises in Style, Group Show at Suprainfinit Gallery Bucharest, 2016 Riverans Only, The Paintbrush Factory, Cluj Napoca, 2015 Knife Seller, Solo show at PLAN-B Gallery Berlin, 2011 Berlin Show #3: Glimpse at PLAN-B Gallery Berlin

Sunday Art Fair 2017

5-8 October | program info: <http://www.sundayartfair.com>

Ambika P3, 35 Marylebone Rd,

London, NW1 5LS